Scandinavian Open 2000:
An open trampoline competition for men and ladies.

The Scandinavian Championships 2000
Celebrating the 25th anniversary of the Scandinavian Open, we introduce the first unofficial Scandinavian Championships.

The Scandinavian Championships 2000 is open for all Scandinavian competitors taking part in Scandinavian Open and Haslev Træf U17. All competitors from Sweden, Norway, Finland and Denmark competing in Scandinavian Open or in Haslev Træf U17 will automatically take part in the first unofficial Scandinavian Championships 2000. The result of the Scandinavian Championships 2000 will be calculated on the basis of the results obtained in Scandinavian Open or Haslev Træf U17. A separate result list will be prepared and a separate prize ceremony will take place. There is no extra charge for participating in the Scandinavian Championships.

Compulsory routines: Haslev Træf:
U14: U17: (born 1983, 1984, 1985)
Compulsory skills: FIG B routine
1. Back layout
2. Full Twist
3. Lazy back layout
4. Cody tucked
5. Barani ball out
At least 9 of the 10 skills in the compulsory routine must have a min. of 270° somersault rotation.

Scandinavian Open:
FIG A routine

Who may participate: Both competitions are FIG-sanctioned and are open for all clubs, national teams and Federations who are currently members of FIG.
