

THE STORY OF THE GLITTERING PLAIN OR THE LAND OF LIVING MEN

DOUNG man, we thank thee; but though the days of the springtide are waxing, the hours of our lives are waning, nor may abide unless thou canst truly tell us that this is the Land of the Glittering Plain: and if that be so, then delay not, lead us to thy lord, and perhaps he will make us content"  Spake he who was somewhat less sticken in years than the first: "Thanks have thou!
