

Live your life

Sometimes you wake up and if you've not been shootin' in a war, been perished by a whore, so ask yourself why you're not in demand,
jobs only like a fan, not even like a man.

Use your time 'cause there's no open end,
you're still alive, but it makes you cold and dead.
Rockn', sex and roll and every job:
Piss off daddy, you are an older cop.

Live your life as long your prick grows tight
Live your life, prick grows tight
Show your life you'll see you feel alright
Show your life, feel all right

First you think your dreams are kidding you, but it's really true, you're no longer you,
so ask yourself why you're not in demand,
jobs only like a fan, not even like a man.

Use your time 'cause there's no open end,
you're still alive, but it makes you cold and dead.
Rockn', sex and roll and every job:
Piss off daddy, you are an older cop.

Live your life as long your prick grows tight
Live your life, prick grows tight
Show your life you'll see you feel alright
Show your life, feel all right
