

Love cash

You walked a way where desire begins to burn.
You walked the way that you never could return.
This bastard evidently had turned your feelings ´round,
but when the rush is over you´re gonna hit the ground.

He payed with love cash
and you think it´s true love,
only with love cash.
What a shitty love.

When you left me I could hardly reason why.
So now I understand your promises and lies.
The distant battles and the slowly dying sound of a new day, that you think that finally you´ve found.

But he payed with love cash
and you think it´s true love,
only with love cash.
It´s a shitty love.

Can´t believe you´ll get your pleasure at any price,
I lost this game, but I give you this advice:
kick against his balls and let this fuckin´ rake get out.
The man who loves you really, it´s your time to find out!

Cause he payed with love cash
and you thought it´s true love,
only with love cash.
What a shitty love.
